SOCIAL AND PERSONAL
MUSICAL

The marriage of Miss Edith Morton Packard, second daughter of Rev. Dr. Edward W. and Mrs. Packard, of New York, curator of the botanical gardens there, took place at noon to-day at the parsonage of the Congregational church on East Broad street, Stratford. The service was conducted by the father of the bride and followed the order in the Book of Common Prayer. The bride was given in white tulle, over silk and carried white roses. The brother of the bridegroom, Dr. Clifton Howe, of Toronto University, was the best man.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Otis M. Howe of Newfane, Vermont, parents of the bridegroom; Miss Dexter, of Brattleboro, Vermont; Miss Harriet Wilkin, of Fayette, N. Y.; Miss Josephine Wilkin, of Jamaica, N. Y.; Miss Gertrude Hyde, of Mt. Holyoke college; Mrs. Elizabeth Benedict, and Mr. Ralph Benedict, of New York; Mrs. Sawyer, of New York city; Dr. Chas. W. Packard, of New York; Dr. Edward N. Packard, Jr., of Syracuse; Mr. Charles Packard, instructor at Williams college; Miss Charlotte M. Packard, of Brunswick, Me.; Miss C. M. Packard, of New York; and a number of immediate neighbors in Stratford. Music was furnished by Misses Edie and Helen Smith. After the ceremony a breakfast was served. The wedding presents attracted much attention and admiration. Dr. and Mrs. Howe will reside in Bedford Park, N. Y. city.

The Bridgeport Union of Christian Endeavors held their annual meeting last evening at the First Baptist church, the twenty-one local societies included in its membership being represented. The balloting for officers was the main business of the evening, resulting as follows: President, Arthur E. Warner, First Baptist; first vice-president, Frank B. Lucas; second vice-president, Harry B. Olcott; third vice-president, C. A. Burgess; Highway chapel; recording secretary, Miss Edna Wynkoop, People's Presbyterian; corresponding secretary, Miss Viola Scott; treasurer, A. J. S. Sullivan; junior superintendent, Miss Edith M. CHARITY CONFERENCE
IN BUFFALO TODAY

(Special from United Press.) Buffalo, June 8.—Delegates from the Pacific Coast and other western points are to-day pouring into the city for the thirty-sixth national conference of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, which opens its sessions here to-morrow. Mayor Adam of Buffalo will welcome the guests. About 9,000 delegates are expected to attend.

Los Angeles and St. Louis are hot after the 1910 meeting of the Charities conference. Pittsburgh would like it next year but will be satisfied if it gets it in 1911. It will be shown by this great conference that charity, besides covering a multitude of sins, covers a wide range of good. The sick, the insane, the inefficient, the incorrigible, the defective, the criminal, the immigrant—every problem which these classes present will be dealt with at the coming conference.

There will be receptions at all the leading clubs, lawn parties and a trip on the lake through Buffalo harbor. The sixth national conference on the education of backward, truant and delinquent children, which is held in connection with the Charities and Corrections conference, concluded its sessions to-day with the election of officers.

CHARLES A. BOARDMAN IS ADJUDGED INSANE.

Boston, June 8.—Charles A. Boardman, 37 years old, of Greenview avenue, Roxbury, who Monday morning is alleged to have tried to enter the home of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, the head of the Christian Science Church in the Chestnut Hill district, Newton, was adjudged insane in the Newton court and committed to an asylum to-day. After being refused admittance to Mrs. Eddy's home Monday morning, Boardman forced an entrance into the garage of E. L. Bigelow where he was found later by the police sitting in Mrs. Bigelow's automobile and merely tooting the horn on the machine.

BIG CORAL PLANT UP IN SMOKE

(Special from United Press.) Springfield, Ill., June 8.—The plant of the Decatur Coral Company was destroyed early today by a fire which caused a property loss of $200,000 and the death of one man. Fireman John Shedd was killed by falling timbers while trying to save some of the firm's books.

STILL TRYING TO UNEARTH
THAT SMUGGLING PLOT

(Special from United Press.) Washington, June 8.—The relentless chase by special agents of the customs service under the sharp goad of treasury officials, in an effort to unearth the gigantic smuggling plot at the port of New York, has led to the door of an employee in Paris of an important trans-Atlantic steamship line. It is understood that another chapter of sensational developments is about to be unfolded. Assistant Secretary Reynolds, in charge of the customs service, said that every energy is being directed toward getting to the bottom of the smuggling business. While Federal agents are not held responsible for goods pushed through the customs of the United States without payment, a close vigilance is being kept. It is said that the only cases of smuggling by the use of the cabin "sleeping trunk" so far detected have so far been confined to the American liner Philadelphia and several ships of the Red Star line, both owned by the International Mercantile Marine Company. High officials of that company are assisting the government force in investigating the cases. Treasury officials are under considerable disadvantage in running down the smugglers inasmuch as they are not allowed to employ secret service.

MR. COCHRAN OPENS
HIS NEW STUDIO

Thoroughly Modern Quarters are Located in Former Home of University Club on Fairfield Avenue.

C. S. Cochran, the well known photographer, opened this morning his new studio at 234 Fairfield avenue. The location is central. The studio occupies the same quarters that were formerly occupied by the University club. In opening the doors of the new gallery, Mr. Cochran presents to the people of the vicinity something it has sorely needed for years, a ground floor residential studio—he also gives them a gallery which has no peer and few equals in the East. The studio is equipped and furnished luxuriously. Cochran's new studio and boasting of reception parlors, 35 feet in depth from the street, comfortable dressing rooms, lavatories, and an operating room surpassing in size the parlors. The reception rooms are draped and carpeted luxuriously. The colors being green and dark red, while the furniture is mission and highly polished heavy quartered oak. The adjoining rooms are conveniently arranged and no more modern operating room can be found in New England. The finishing departments are all of size and equipment to assure patrons of an exceptional degree of meritorious photographs.

Mr. Cochran's ability is known not alone in the city, but all over the East, where he has successfully competed with the foremost in his business.

TAFT AND GOMPERS BURIED THE HATCHET

(Special from United Press.) Washington, June 8.—Presidents Taft and Gompers have buried the hatchet. All the unkind things they said about each other during the late campaign are forgiven, even if they are not entirely forgotten.

As evidence that the President of the United States does not feel and is kindly toward the president of the American Federation of Labor, he has provided Mr. Gompers with personal letters of introduction to the American Ambassador in the European countries which he will visit in his forth-coming tour of investigation of European labor conditions. Mr. Gompers took occasion to express his appreciation of this courtesy in an address at a dinner given in his honor. Incidentally the president of the American Federation of Labor is to be ailing at Justice Gould on account of his injunction in the Bucks Stove & Range case.

"The government can," he said, "when martial law prevails, prevent free speech, free assembly and free press. But it can establish such a condition only when the life of the Nation is endangered. Yet what the Nation cannot do except for the sake of saving its life, Justice Gould would do to perpetuity for the sake of saving a stove."

President Gompers will sail for Liverpool, June 19, and his first reception on British soil will be by the Unionists of Lancaster District.

Bacon to Succeed
Ambassador White

Paris, June 8.—Private advices received here from Washington state that Robert Bacon, ex-Secretary of State, has accepted the Ambassadorship to France and that he will succeed Henry White at the end of the month. Bacon, when the post was first offered to him, declined to accept it, preferring that Mr. White should be retained as Ambassador, but, finding that President Taft had resolved in any event to replace Ambassador White, finally agreed to accept the position. Rumors of Mr. White's approaching retirement, which have been current here for months, cause genuine regret especially in official circles where he is particularly persona grata, and among the members of the American Chamber of Commerce, where it was felt that his experience would count for much in the difficult tariff negotiations between the two countries, which are considered inevitable, after the passage of the new American Tariff bill.

ENGLISH ADMIRALTY
NOW DEFIES GERMANY.

London, June 8.—The Admiralty gave further evidence to-day of its determination to contest with Germany the supremacy in Dreadnaught construction by drafting specifications for three additional repairing docks on the east and south coasts. These docks, for which bids will be asked within the next month, will be built especially for the repair of Dreadnaughts and will quadruple the present capacity for work of this sort.
